

Name:

Block:

FIRE SAFETY WORKSHEET

1. Name and define the three factors that are required for a fire to exist.

	Name	Definition
i.	_____	_____ _____ _____
ii.	_____	_____ _____ _____
iii.	_____	_____ _____ _____

2. For each class of fire, name the general type of fuel and two specific fuel types.

A	General Fuel	_____
	Specific Examples	_____ _____
B	General Fuel	_____
	Specific Examples	_____ _____
C	General Fuel	_____
	Specific Examples	_____ _____
D	General Fuel	_____
	Specific Examples	_____ _____

3. For each type of fire extinguisher, identify what would be contained within the fire extinguisher and how this works to put out a fire (hint: what part of the fire triangle does it work against).

A	Contents	_____
	How It Works	_____ _____
B	Contents	_____
	How It Works	_____ _____
C	Contents	_____
	How It Works	_____ _____
D	Contents	_____
	How It Works	_____ _____

4. Why should a Class A fire extinguisher never be used to fight a Class B or C fire?

Class B	_____ _____
Class C	_____ _____

5. Why are multi-class fire extinguishers the most common type of fire extinguisher?