

Assessment	Elaboration	Student
Did Not Submit (0)	You did not submit anything.	You did not submit anything. This may be due to a tech error. Contact your teacher.
Did Not Attempt Learning Target (1)	You have submitted work, but your submission does not meet the learning target. You must revise your submission before moving on	STOP! You did not follow instructions. Talk to your teacher about trying again.
Learning Target attempted, but not demonstrated (2)	Attempt made to meet the learning target, but it is either incoherent, misdirected, or incomplete. You must revise your submission before moving on	STOP! It's clear you tried and we can work with that. Talk to your teacher about trying again.
Developing An Understanding of the Learning Target (3)	Met the learning target, but minimally. You have demonstrated some understanding of the material but it is unclear whether you fully understand the learning target. Additional support recommended.	This is a great start, but there are some big problems to work on. Consult your teacher before moving forward.
Learning Target Met, but some work required to improve skills (4)	Met the learning target, but there is significant room for improvement. Spelling, grammar, punctuation, organization, or appropriate language may be a barrier to your ability to communicate effectively.	You're getting there, but it's hard to understand what you are saying.
Learning Target has been Demonstrated (5)	Learning target has been fully met. There may be some minor mistakes but nothing that impedes your ability to communicate clearly. Some recurring errors that may need to be addressed.	Good job! All learning targets have been reached. See edits for suggested improvements.
You have exceeded beyond the learning target. (6)	Learning target has been fully met. There may be one or two very minor errors, but no barriers to your ability to communicate effectively.	Not only did you meet the targets, but it was really impressive. Keep it up!

*When marking an assignment on a complete/incomplete basis, a 4 and higher is considered a complete, and a 3 and under is considered Incomplete. Your grade will only be assigned a grade of Complete or incomplete

Projects are marked on this 0-6 scale, with the numbers turned into a percentage.

1 = 17%	3 = 50%	5 = 83%
2 = 33%	4 = 67%	6 = 100%

Students can achieve half marks (eg. 5.5 = 92%)
