

We Remember it- Graphic Novel

Learning Goal: We will read the story of “We Remember It” so that we can better understand the conflict and resistance that is part of our Canadian History.

Task: While reading the story of “We Remember It” from the novel “This Place: 150 Years Retold” answer the questions that follow.

Questions

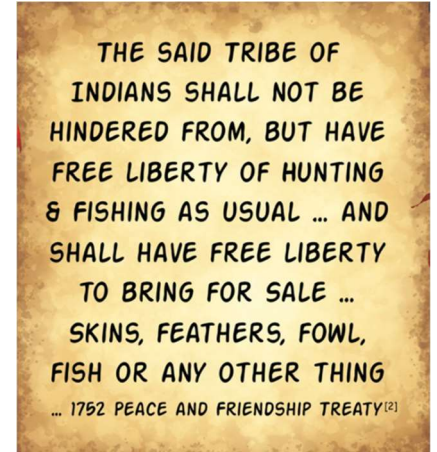

Timeline

1. Whose territory does this story take place in.

2. Read through the timeline points for this story. Most deal with Indigenous people gaining the right to self-governance, what does this mean?

3. What does the Peace and Friendship treaty state about fishing?

4. What provinces will be involved in this story?

Story

1. What year does the story start in? _____

2. Who is cutting the fishing nets?

3. When the local Indigenous people find out what is happening what do they do?

4. What law do the police state they are breaking?

5. What does the Chief explain to the police?

6. What does the elder predict will happen?

7. How many years has passed since the stand off that night? _____

8. How much time was being given to the Indigenous people of the area to fish?

9. What is the QPP?

10. What is Plamu? _____

11. What happens to the meat of the fish if you cut the sack?

12. What does it show that they brought Salmon to the elder?

13. What can you infer from this transaction and sale of fish from the images in this panel?

14. What does the father tell his son about the cycle and the amount of fishing their people have done over the years?

15. What happens on June 11th, 1981?

16. What does the elder do in front of the police?
