

Name: _____

Industrial Revolution Factory Worker Simulation

On this sheet you will be recording your character's day at work in the factory. You will write what happened to you on each roll and what kind of injury you got (if you got one).

Character Name: _____

Roll #1- What happened? I rolled a _____	What kind of injury?
Roll #2- What happened? I rolled a _____	What kind of injury?
Roll #3- What happened? I rolled a _____	What kind of injury?
Roll #4- What happened? I rolled a _____	What kind of injury?
Roll #5- What happened? I rolled a _____	What kind of injury?
Roll #6- What happened? I rolled a _____	What kind of injury?

Roll #7- What happened?
I rolled a _____

On a separate piece of paper, write a memoir of what happened on your 12-hour shift at the factory today and what your character is going to do for work now. How do they feel about their job? What sort of injuries did they get? Does this affect their ability to work? Remember that most kids worked at home, on farms, or as an apprentice at a trade (smithing, shoemaking, glassblowing, etc.). This explanation should be at least 5 sentences long.

Then write 1-3 sentences about why you would or would not want to work in a system like this.

Standard
Extending	The write up references events in the simulation and explains your thoughts on the working conditions of children during the Industrial Revolution in great detail or with extra style.
Proficient	The write up references events in the simulation and explains your thoughts on the working conditions of children during the Industrial Revolution.
Developing	The write up references events in the simulation and somewhat explains your thoughts on the working conditions of children during the Industrial Revolution.
Emerging	The write up either does not reference the events of the simulation well or does not explain many thoughts about the working conditions of children during the Industrial Revolution.
