

Name: _____

March on Versailles Simulation

On this sheet you will be recording your character's time during the march on Versailles. You will write what happened to you on each roll and what kind of injury you got (if you got one).

Character Name: _____

Roll #1- What happened? I rolled a _____	Injury or Influence?
Roll #2- What happened? I rolled a _____	Injury or Influence?
Roll #3- What happened? I rolled a _____	Injury or Influence?
Roll #4- What happened? I rolled a _____	What kind of weapon? Cannon Musket Sword
Roll #5- What happened? I rolled a _____	Injury or Influence?
Roll #6- What happened? I rolled a _____	Injury or Influence?

Roll #7- What happened? I rolled a _____	Injury or Influence?
Roll #8- What happened? I rolled a _____	Injury or Influence?
Roll #9- What happened? I rolled a _____	Injury or Influence?
Roll #10- What happened? I rolled a _____	Injury or Influence?

Results	Total Influence: Total Injuries:
---------	---

On a separate piece of paper, write a memoir of what happened during the march to Versailles. What happened to them during the march? How did they turn out by the end of the march? Remember that most French citizens were starving peasants that had to fight to survive. This explanation should be at least 5 sentences long.

Then write 1-3 sentences about why you think the march on Versailles was mostly women? What were men probably doing at the time of the march? Do you see a revolution affecting men or women more?

Standard	3.2
Extending	The write up references events in the simulation and explains your thoughts on the March on Versailles and the role of gender in a revolution in great detail or with extra style.
Proficient	The write up references events in the simulation and explains your thoughts on the March on Versailles and the role of gender in a revolution.
Developing	The write up partially references events in the simulation and partially explains your thoughts on the March on Versailles and the role of gender in a revolution.
Emerging	The write up rarely references events in the simulation and doesn't explain your thoughts on the March on Versailles and the role of gender in a revolution.