French Revolution Newspaper Assignment

In this assignment, you will be writing a newspaper page from the point of view of someone who saw the events happen. Every newspaper needs some of the following (depending on group size):

- A Title for your newspaper, the date it was published, and contributing authors at the top.
- A main article explaining an event from the French Revolution (Tennis Court Oath, Storming of the Bastille, Execution of Louis XVI, Execution of Marie Antionette, War against Austria, or the Coup of Thermidor). The main article must have a picture to go with it.
- A smaller side article about something else about the main event (background or context, personal story, an expert opinion, opposing view, local/broader impact, data/graphs, what happens next, or behind the scenes).
- An off-topic piece that newspapers tend to have (advertisements, comics or jokes, births and marriages announcements, obituaries, horoscopes, weather reports, etc.).

Group Size

- A group of 1 only needs 1 of each type.
- A group of 2 needs 1 main article, 2 side articles, and 2 off topic pieces.
- A group of 3 needs 2 main articles, 3 side articles, and 2 off topic pieces.

This project can be completely typed out or you can simply print out your articles and picture(s) and glue them to a larger page organized as you wish.

The easiest way to do this is to make all the parts individually in Word, print them off, then glue them all together on a piece of paper.
