

Name: _____

Battle of Agincourt Simulation

On this sheet you will be recording your character's time during the Battle of Agincourt. You will write what happened to you on each roll and any kills or injuries.

Character Name: _____

Roll #1- What happened? I rolled a _____	Injury or Kills?
Roll #2- What happened? I rolled a _____
Roll #3- What happened? I rolled a _____
Roll #4- What happened? I rolled a _____
Roll #5- What happened? I rolled a _____
Roll #6- What happened? I rolled a _____

Roll #7- What happened? I rolled a _____
Roll #8- What happened? I rolled a _____
Roll #9- What happened? I rolled a _____
Roll #10- What happened? I rolled a _____
Roll #11- What happened? I rolled a _____
Roll #12- What happened? I rolled a _____

Total Kills: Results:	Total Injuries: Results:
--------------------------	-----------------------------

On a separate piece of paper, write a memoir of what happened during the Battle of Agincourt. What went well for your soldier? What went poorly? How did the “set-up” of the battle go for you vs. the actual battle? This paragraph should be at least 5 sentences long.

Then answer the following questions:

- Rank the 3 wars (Edwardian, Caroline, Lancastrian) in the 100 Years War from most to least important.
- Rank the 3 roles of combatant (archer, infantry, cavalry) from most important to least important.
- Overall, do you think that the 100 Years War was meaningful or pointless?

Standard	2.2
Extending	Write-up either covers the events of the 100 Years War with great detail or style and answers the questions with detailed explanation.
Proficient	Write-up covers the events of the 100 Years War with detail or style and answers the questions with adequate explanation.
Developing	Write-up either covers the events of the 100 Years War with detail or style or answers the questions with adequate explanation.
Emerging	Write-up neither covers the events of the 100 Years War with detail or style or answers the questions with adequate explanation.